

 EXHIBIT FARM

True or false: 90% of American farms fit the official definition of a small farm.

One acre of soybeans produces enough oil to make how many crayons?

What percent of American farms sell food locally?

How much is the farmland in the United States worth?

True or false: Thanksgiving is the holiday when Americans spend the most on food.

When was the first tractor invented?

How much does the average farm produce?

One bushel of wheat produces how many pounds of flour?

How many acres of farmland are there in the U.S.?

 EXHIBIT FARM

True. A small farm is defined as one that earns less than $350,000/year

82,368 crayons

About 8%

$2 trillion, all together

False! We actually spend more on food for Independence Day.

In the 1880s. Modern tractors were developed by the 1920s

Enough to feed 166 people per year

42 lbs of white flour or 60 lbs of whole whea

900 million acres